

WSSPC 2012 Lifetime Achievement Award Nomination Form

Presented at the 2012 National Earthquake Conference
Memphis, Tennessee
April 10-14, 2012

WSSPC 2012 Lifetime Achievement Award

The Western States Seismic Policy Council's (WSSPC) 2012 Lifetime Achievement Award will be given to recognize an outstanding leader in earthquake risk reduction who is still practicing in his or her profession. The recipient will have demonstrated throughout his or her career an extraordinary commitment, level of service, and contribution to earthquake risk reduction.

The Award recipient will be honored at the 2012 National Earthquake Conference in Memphis, Tennessee, where he or she will receive a specially designed award. Recipients will be featured in conference materials and the official conference website: www.earthquakeconference.org and WSSPC's website: www.wsspc.org.

Submission: To make a nomination, provide the WSSPC office with 1) a completed nomination form (Note: nomination by two individuals is required), 2) two letters of recommendation, and 3) a one-page summary of the person's important accomplishments in earthquake risk reduction, preferably with a photo (head shot) that will be published on the WSSPC (www.wsspc.org) and National Earthquake Conference websites (www.earthquakeconference.org). Combine and submit all documentation jointly and in electronic format (PDF or Word documents) to Amy Lewis, WSSPC Program Manager at alewis@wsspc.org.

All materials are due to the WSSPC office no later than December 30, 2011.
