Jackson Laboratory Community Resource Day

On May 8th WSSPC attended the Safety fair at Jackson Laboratory in Sacramento, California. The fair was held in an effort to educate Jackson Laboratory employees on emergency preparedness, public safety, and health. Approximately 80 employees visited the WSSPC table to learn more about who we are and what they can do to protect themselves before, during, and after an earthquake.

In the course of the discussions, many of the employees learned about what WSSPC does and what to do before, during, and after an earthquake. Many left our booth with a greater knowledge of what resources are out there to help you get prepared and how to “DROP, COVER, and HOLD ON” when an earthquake hits.

WSSPC is taking the initiative to form an Earthquake Clearinghouse Work Group:

WSSPC in forming an Earthquake Clearinghouse Work Group! This Work Group recognizes:

- Existing plans and processes may need updating
- Where plans and processes don't exist, they can be created and implemented
- When an event occurs, few WSSPC members have the capacity to staff and operate a Clearinghouse over an extended time period

This initiative is supported via:

- WSSPC Policy Recommendation 19-3 Post-Earthquake Technical Clearinghouses, located at: https://www.wsspc.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/05/PR_19-3_Clearinghouses_Version3_111518-2.pdf
- Board approval as stated during the Board Meeting on April 26, 2019 in Salt Lake City, UT
- Interest expressed by other WSSPC members as stated at the Annual Business Meeting in Salt Lake City
- Willingness to participate and support the process as communicated by other partners; to include EERI, FEMA, USGS, and CUSEC

The Earthquake Clearinghouse Work Group process will start with the review of existing plans, policies, and templates to evaluate what works and what needs to be updated. Once that is completed, the next step is to work to develop a "framework" from which members who do not have an existing Clearinghouse Plan can work from to create their own. Long-term, the intent is for the Working Group to develop and support workshops, training, etc. It's expected most work will be done virtually (teleconference, SharePoint, webinar, etc.) with at least one face-to-face meeting each year.

If you have an interest in participating in or supporting this Working Group, please email Matthew Wall at mwall@wsspc.org

We are Accepting Input for our Resources and Reports Webpage !
